DR. J. ERNEST THACKER.

Yesterday there appeared in the Daily Times a testimonial of Dr. Thacker's work in Kennett, Mo. Here is one from Madison, Fla., clipped from The Christian Observer, Louisville, Ky.

Madison.—"On Wednesday, February 9, Rev. J. E. Thacker, D. D., Assembly evangelist, came to us and for fifteen days preached the Gospel in its beauty and simplicity. From the very first sermon Dr. Thacker's messages and personality attracted and held the closest attention of the people. By Sunday night the congregation had so grown that we had to go to the court house where a larger auditorium might be had. Members of all churches were interested, and the meeting early took the form of a co-operative revival service. Mr. T. B. Roddey, of Chattanooga, Tenn., was associated with Dr. Thacker as musical director. Mr. Roddey's spiritual interpretation of the songs added much to their effectiveness. During the meeting 411 reconsecration cards were signed, nineteen to join some church by letter and eighty-nine professions of faith. The whole town and surrounding community was revived spiritually. Unhesitatingly the people say that this was the greatest meeting that Madison has ever had. Thirty-one members have been added to the Presbyterian church (Rev. W. S. Patterson, pastor), and the prospects are good for quite a few more in the near future. The other churches of the town also report a large number of additions as a result of the meeting."

Dr. Thacker and Mr. Roddey come tomorrow. The first service will be 7:30 Wednesday night at First Baptist church.
